THANKFUL THOUGHTS

Thanksgiving is approaching and I thought it would be fun to ask students what they are thankful for.

Sophia (K) - giving hugs, Ryker (K) - I like to get new things, Mason (K) - friends, Heather (K) - Kensley (cousins), Jace (K) hugging people.

Morgan (1st) -Mom & Dad, Tony (1st)-Soldiers, Xadrienne (1st) - being kind, Braden (1st) -God,

Peyton (2nd) - my family, Myla (2nd) - Grandparents, Sarai (2nd) - the school, teachers, learning, food that God planted and I'm thankful to be alive, Daniel (2nd) - friends, family, plants so we can breathe, friends to play with and family to love.

Brianna (3rd) - cooks at Rissler, Carter (3rd)- my house & food to eat, Brock (3rd)- my family, my house & my friends, Aaliyah (3rd)-food.

Aiden (4th)-my mom & dad, Brayden (4th)-turkey, Matthew (4th)-my family, Leon (4th)-my mom, my dad, my brother, I don't know about my sister, uncle, grandma and grandpa, Mercedes (4th)-everyone here is nice and if they aren't, that they become nice.

I am thankful for so many things; God, family and friends, the country I live in, great relationships, work that challenges me, and my health. I think the students at S.M. Rissler nailed the "What I'm thankful for" question. We want to wish you a wonderful holiday season and looking forward to 2017.
